Write three future diary entries by Holden after he has left the sanatorium and returned to school and life in NYC.

Salinger would NEVER sell this book to Hollywood but let's say he has. The movie is about to be released and they've come to you to put the poster together for the film. Use the computer or your own hand to create it. It should contain:

The names and pics of the stars who will play Holden, Stradlater, Ackley, Phoebe, Sunny and Mr. Antolini

A presentation that represents the book/story in some way

A catchy phrase that will become the tag line for the film (visit imdb.com and look at what these are like for some of your favorite films)

You are a visitor to the park on the day the Phoebe and Holden arrive to ride the carousel. Describe what you witnessed, heard, experienced and felt about what you saw go on that day.

Someone has requested that the BOE remove this book from your school library shelves. You have been asked to write a defense of it and an argument for why it should remain. Compose that response and be certain to include:

your reasons for keeping it your reasons for liking it your reasons for thinking it is important for others to read it your reasons why you believe that this is a classic of literature that will continue to be read for years
